Professional Summary

Dr. Ramaipadi Angy is a distinguished public sector executive and governance strategist with a profound background in institutional performance and socio-economic development — a transformational leader renowned for integrating policy execution with ethical accountability. Her career includes significant roles as Chief Director in Cooperative Governance, Human Settlement and Traditional Affairs (COGHSTA) and as a Mayor in Limpopo, providing executive oversight, strategic leadership and legislative compliance. As a Board member of UIGC, University of Venda, she — along with its entities and affiliates — delivered quality services to various stakeholders. A member of the International Association of World Peace Advocates (IAOWPA), she brings valuable insight to matters of governance, peace and security globally. Dr. Ramaipadi is a visionary advocate for women's empowerment, leading national and international initiatives that elevate women into decision-making roles. Her commitment to community transformation is evidenced by her management of national programs that generated over 30,000 job opportunities, fostering inclusive economic growth. She also voluntarily coordinated a provincial and national mass literacy campaign that empowered communities through life-skills and development, creating employment opportunities for more than 40,000 community members.
